PERRY DAVIS'S PAIN-KILLER.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cared; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which acts so quickly and surely in such crosses as PEERY DAVIS'S PAIN-KILLEE. The orompt use of this invaluable fields for forty years, and is most valued where it is best known.

Cation of the person addressed on the address side of a postal card renders the card minimaliable, when the place of business is indicated in the direction.

The following rulings of the Department in the January "Guide," this year, should be carefully considered by publishers, news agents, merchants, and all others who send packages to the post-office for transmission in the mails:

One of the gents tried to persuade the other to go in the day and dig for the gold, but he declined, saying: "Fve got no faith in nigger dreams, and don't want to ham hears of it he will put it in the Republican. Better let the nigger have it.'

But the other man reflected, and the nore he reflected the more he wanted the buried gold. So one bright moonlight night he gathered his pick and slipped off alone to the graveyard. He dug from 7 until 11 in all the corners of the fence, but his search was imrewarded. It is said that every night now that man turns over the sod in that cold cemetery until 11 and then goes home. At a quarter-past 12 the old long grave near the gin-house opens, an old darky's form creeps forth, looks at the broken ground, goes to a certain spot, stamps several times, chuckles gleefully.

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

Wood and Coal Shipments.—One of the chief inducements amongst capitalists for building the Brighthope railroad, uniting Chester with Bermuda Hundred, was the Crawford and others. Argued by W. W. chance it afforded of shipping from that ancient Virginia entrepot wood, coal, and Lybrook vs. Ingram. Writ of error re-fused to judgment of the Hustings Court of field. One shipment of cord-wood was made this week by vessel to New York city, and as soon as the Bermuda docks have been sufficiently completed the shipment of coal will commence.
